

Learning Community Coordinator (Nov 2019)

You will promote the unique learning model at the College; engaging participants in the rhythm of the community to ground learning, foster relationships and enhance their experience while at the College.

SOME OF THE MAIN THINGS YOU'LL BE DOING:

- Work in partnership with the Head of College and other stakeholders to develop the College as a living classroom with an exceptional practice of cooperative learning and sustainability in context.
- Help develop and maintain a distinctive learning community pedagogy.
- Work alongside teaching staff to integrate learning community pedagogy into the curriculum.
- Coordinate course participant, student, volunteer, and staff participation in the daily routines of the College in collaboration with the Short Course, Postgraduate, Garden and Food teams.
- Provide support for the College Community through consultation, signposting, and referrals as appropriate
- Work with staff and volunteers to maintain a culture of warmth and hospitality for our students, participants, tutors and other guests
- Coordinate with Dartington volunteer management to recruit Schumacher volunteers and hold the College's duty of care towards them and allocate their work
- Support the integration of Dartington facilities team members situated at the College.
- Work closely with appropriate teams to support College community days and other forms of council and celebration.
- Promote anti-discriminatory practices in all work

ROLE DETAILS:

DEPARTMENT: Schumacher College

REPORTING TO: Head of College

WHAT YOU WILL BRING:

- A calm, organised and pro-active approach to your work with an eye for detail.
- The ability to work openly and collaboratively with others.
- The ability to respond in the moment to a changing schedule and solve problems as they arise.
- The ability to motivate and inspire people to develop their potential.
- Experience of facilitating learning for adults and engaging people in participative processes.
- An understanding of group dynamics and a commitment to access and inclusion.
- An appreciation of the work and aims of Schumacher College and Dartington Hall Trust.
